Dear Parent,

Be the parent today that you want your kids to remember tomorrow.

November, the Thanksgiving month, the beginning of fall, the lovely autumn is more enchanting than any other month. Fallen leaves lying on the grass in the November sun can bring more happiness than daffodils. It is also a month when trees shed their leaves and sends across the message to love them until their leaves fall off and then encourage them to regrow again in spring. So, the Thanksgiving November in DPS, Miyapur was all about the tiny tots doing some wonderful activities to keep up with the spirit of the month and the school.

GRANDPARENTS DAY Celebrationsoots (LKG on 6th November, 2019)

The very first event of the month was the delightful Grandparents day celebration. Grandparents are a delightful blend of laughter, caring deeds, wonderful stories and love. They are a family's greatest treasure, the founders of a loving legacy, the greatest storytellers, and the keepers of traditions. Grandparents are the family's strong foundation. The pampering that the grand kids get from their grandparents leaves a lasting impression on their lives. So, to honour them the Pre-Primary wing of Delhi Public School, Miyapur celebrated Grandparents Day on 6th November 2019.

The function started with the welcoming of the grandparents followed by introduction speech by the UKG children and a mellifluous song by the LKG children. Thereafter, a game was organised in which all the grandparents participated with great zeal. 'Passing the ball' game was conducted where the grandparents sat with their partners and they kept passing the ball while the music played, when the music stopped the person who had the ball with him / her had to pick a chit and perform the task mentioned in the chit. The next two games were one-minute games. One was Bindi game where the grandfathers had to remove and paste the Bindis on grandmother's face in one minute.

The second game was blowing-the-balloons game where one had to blow the balloon and the other one had to tie the knot in one minute. The winning pairs of the Game were greeted with gifts by the Badge holders of UKG children. After this, few grandparents shared their beautiful thoughts and appreciated Head Mistress and Teachers for organizing such an event. High tea and biscuits were arranged for them. Finally, they all went to their grandchildren's classrooms and there they made a beautiful card for their grandchildren and for other kids in the class. They narrated nice and beautiful stories to the kids. Last but not the least, each couple was given a sapling as a token of appreciation.

GURUPURAB Special Assembly (Grade - I on 8th November, 2019)

Grade - I of Delhi Public School, Miyapur conducted a special assembly on 8th November, 2019 to celebrate 'Gurupurab'. Nearly 130 kids took part in this celebration. The assembly began with the floral tribute to Guru Nanak Dev Ji followed by 'Sloka' in praise and glory of Guru Nanak Dev Ji, which enchanted and soothed the soul of everyone. This special assembly was conducted to mark the occasion and bring home the relevance of the festival. The speech was followed by a poem invoking the teachings of Sikhism. Serenity floated in the air with the humming of the holy hymns by the students of grade 1 and it paved the way for a very fruitful and productive day.

The kids recited a rhyme describing 10 Sikh Gurus, filling the whole atmosphere with peace and tranquility. The children were beautifully dressed in Punjabi attires with their heads covered with turban or dupatta and looked very impressive. The students depicted glimpses of Guru Nanak Dev Ji's life. The well-presented enactment certainly enlightened the audience about the solemnity of the festival. Kids also spoke about the significance of Gurupurab and teachings of Guru Nanak Devji, importance of langer and the significance of the 5 Ks, the physical symbols worn by Sikhs who have been initiated into the Khalsa. They performed martial arts which permeates a person's life and creates solid relationships and a sense of justice and respect. Bhangra Dance most popular dance of Punjabi was performed with full of josh and lively tone and the dance was equally vivacious. The Co-Ordinator, Mrs. HemaMalini addressed the parents and wished everyone happy Guru Purab. The celebrations were relinquished by the closing address of the Head Mistress of the school, Mrs. Raina Bhatt who revealed that the motive behind such celebration was to bring home the relevance of the festival to our young generation.

INTER HOUSE GROUP SONG COMPETITION (Grade - IV on 13th November, 2019)

Music binds our soul, heart and emotions. It cheers the spirit and lightens the heart. In fact, through singing, children learn to express their feelings and ideas. To bring out the singing talent of the students an Inter House Group Song Competition was organized at D.P.S Miyapur on 13th November 2019 for the students of grade IV. The theme of the competition was patriotic songs. The preliminary round was held in their respective classes and children were selected from the respective houses by the music teacher. Each house prepared a Hindi patriotic song under the expert guidance of their music teacher Ms. Pavani Vasa. Children sang the songs with lot of passion, confidence and patriotic feeling. Each house showed their mastery over voice modulation, pitch, rhythm and tone. Children showcased their sense of pride and self-confidence through this competition. The judges thoroughly enjoyed the mellifluous group songs. They were impressed with the confidence, the tonal quality and the fervour with which they sang the patriotic songs. The first prize was bagged by Prithvi House, second by Aakash House and third by Agni House.

The students were actively involved and showed great enthusiasm and creativity of convey their message to the crowd. It was not only a learning session for the kids but also a fun-filled awareness campaign.

FIELD TRIP KANDLAKOYA OXYGEN PARK (Grades - LKG & UKG on 27th November, 2019)

Nothing beats an exciting hands-on experience to deepen learning. The magic of a field trip isn't just the subject, it's the break in routine and adventure that opens up children's minds to new things. Hence, Field trips are crucial for every student to acquire knowledge, culture and hands-on experience. DPS, Miyapur had organized a field trip on 27th November 2019 to Kandlakoya Oxygen Park for the students of LKG and UKG. 123 students of UKG and 58 students of LKG were present. The students were extremely excited and kept singing songs and rhymes in the bus till they reached the venue.

The park looked more like a mini forest. Children were mesmerized to see the serene beauty of the nature while taking a walk. Teachers showed them different types of plants, trees, fauna and explained the importance of taking care of their environment. Each and every detail was observed making one understand and appreciate the bounty and the beauty that the expansive living world has to offer.

Butterfly Rainbow garden, Children Play areas, Gazebo, Tree House, Canopy walkway and Exotic Birds' Aviary were the main attractions. The Banyan tree monster was the centre of attraction for all the kids. There was a pond with the sculpture of a huge tortoise. Students also learnt about the exotic birds – Blue Gold Macaw, Sun Conures, Jenday Conure and White Cockatiel while walking through the aviary. Many students expressed a desire to visit the place again. Indeed it was a great day for all the students and teachers, as it strengthened the bond between the students and their teachers. Overall, it was an interesting, thrilling and exciting experience for the students
